After last night's draft, I've been all over Twitter trying to understand how the Blackhawks could have passed on David Pastrnak. You may recall he was the teenager that had broken his foot and even though it's not officially known if he will return to the draft, my feeling was that it was going to be highly unlikely. Some people were already calling him a bust, and people that had read the above tweet knew that it was tongue in cheek. Some people didn't get it and thought I was serious. Let me be clear: David Pastrnak is not a bust. I am not a prognosticator, and I don't pretend to have any authority on these matters. But I was simply telling the truth about a conversation I had with a friend, who told me that he had no reason to believe that Pastrn
