Northern's bid to secure a buyer was approved by the Department of Transport last night, after months of negotiations, but the NTLR network remains under threat unless there is a political consensus on its future. The share price closed up by 46p at just £37.49. Northern's chief executive, Peter Beale, said: "Today's announcement confirms my belief that, with the backing of our sponsors, the investment community and customers, we can provide both customers and staff with an improved service at a time when customer demand is growing." The HGCA-led takeover is the latest in a string of railway takeovers announced in recent months. In March, the Government approved a takeover by FirstGroup, which runs some of Northern's services. Mr Beale added: "We have today seen a number
